

Volunteers wanted

The Centre for Multicultural Youth (CMY) are currently looking to recruit volunteers for 2009 to work with young people from newly arrived refugee backgrounds.

We are seeking people aged 18+ who have experience balancing part-time work, study, and family life and are able to commit to volunteering for one afternoon per week (12:00 – 2:00pm, or 1:30 – 3:30pm) from February – July.

The program will be held across four sites in the South-East (Noble Park and Dandenong) and West (Footscray) of Melbourne.

If you respect and value diversity, want to support newly arrived refugee young people, and are able to make a 6 month commitment to weekly meetings...

We want to hear from you!

For more information please contact Leanne McGaw on ph: 9340 3700, e: lmcgaw@cmymy.net.au or check out our website www.cmymy.net.au

Group interviews and training will be held in late January 2009, so submit your application now.
