

Volunteer with Young Refugees

Our volunteers help newly arrived young people settle happily into life in Australia

You will be joining a dynamic group to help with:

- × Setting and achieving goals
- × Getting around and making friends
- × Developing skills to find work
- × Exploring further education options
- × Having fun!

You are:

- × Over 18
- × Interested in learning about different cultures
- × Keen to make a difference in a young person's life
- × Proactive, enthusiastic and fun
- × Able to commit to two hours, one afternoon a week for six months

"It's so much fun! I love getting to know the students and learning more about their unique experiences. It's so rewarding"

Ucan2 Volunteer

Ucan2

The Centre for Multicultural Youth (CMY) needs volunteers for Ucan2 programs based in South East and Western regions of Melbourne, running from February 2012.

Contact the Ucan2 Project Officer on (03) 9340 3700 or email ucan2@cmymy.net.au

Applications close January 9th. To apply online, and for more information, check out the website:

Foundation House

www.cmy.net.au/ucan2