

CMYI's Youth Participation Register

What is the purpose?

CMYI is regularly contacted by government departments (e.g. Office for Youth) and organisations wishing to involve culturally and linguistically diverse (CLD) young people in activities or events they are organising. The purpose of the register is to have a list of young people (aged 16 years +) who can be contacted when such opportunities arise.

How will the register be used?

- Any CMYI staff member may contact you in regards to a proposed project or activity.
- The details of the register will NOT be shared with anyone outside CMYI without your consent.
- The register will NOT be used a mailing list
- You can request to have your name removed at any time from the register.
- If your contact details change (and you wish to remain on the register) you will need to contact CMYI (see below)

How can I join?

If you would like to have your contact details added to the register, please return the completed form below to Leanne McGaw, Youth Engagement Coordinator;
