

2019 MY Education Training Calendar

MY Education training is pleased to offer FREE training sessions for Homework Clubs (OSHLSP) at our Carlton venue. We will also be running sessions in regional areas- details to come soon! As well as calendared events, CMY provides training by request across Victoria.

NEW Training for volunteers and coordinators

Fun and Games

Tuesday 19th March, 9:30am – 1:00pm

Wednesday 30th October, 9:30am – 1:00pm

Out-of-school-hours learning support programs are not just about homework! They can provide a great opportunity for EAL students to learn in creative ways. Being actively involved helps us to learn. 'Learning through doing' is especially valuable for students learning English. Fun, active games can incorporate language skills and give students a chance to experience success and enjoyment. This practical workshop will provide simple, affordable ideas for your resource kit. Includes a visit to the Language and Multicultural Education Resource Centre, a delicious lunch and networking opportunities. 3.5 hours.

Training for volunteer tutors

Supporting positive behaviour

Wednesday 15th February, 10am-12pm OR

Thursday 5th September, 10am – 12pm

This module will increase your understanding of possible reasons for different behaviours demonstrated by the young people in your programs. You will explore strategies and skills to re-engage students in their learning and practice different approaches to encourage positive behaviour. 2 hours.

Creating a safe and supportive environment

Wednesday 13^h March, 10am – 12pm OR

Wednesday 14th August, 10am- 12pm

This module explores techniques tutors can use to create a positive learning environment. It also looks at the professional boundaries and child safety requirements of tutoring. 2 hours.

Tutoring strategies for EAL students

Thursday 25th July, 10am-12 OR 6pm-8pm

The four skills of speaking, listening, reading and writing are the foundation of literacy. This session introduces practical and fun activities to support EAL students to practice these. 2 hours.

Strategies for EAL maths

Wednesday 15th May, 10am-12pm OR 6pm-8pm

For EAL students, learning maths may be complicated by cultural differences in how it is taught and by the English components within maths problems. However, maths is not as language dependent as other areas of the curriculum, so there is potential for it to be a positive experience for EAL students. In this module you will explore strategies that support the learning of mathematics for EAL students. 2 hours.

2019 MY Education Training Calendar

Culturally responsive tutoring

Wednesday 12th June, 10am-12pm OR
Monday 11th November, 10am-12pm

What does it mean to be culturally responsive? In this module you will have an opportunity to explore your own cultural perspectives and consider how this impacts on your tutoring. We look at the skills you need to be culturally responsive and apply these to tutor situations. 2 hours.

Training for coordinators

Running your OSHLSP

Wednesday 20th November, 10am – 1pm

Suitable for new coordinators

Establishing your OSHLSP and running it week to week is a big job. In this training you will hear tips and principles for streamlining preparation and handling student behaviour and wellbeing. 3 hours.

Creating a child safe OSHLSP

Wednesday 27th February, 10am – 3pm OR
Wednesday 21st August, 10am – 3pm

In response to the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse, Victoria has introduced compulsory minimum standards of child safety for organisations that supply services for children. This module explores how OSHLSP can be aware of the risks and how to reduce them. Participants will learn about child safety, the standards, and how to apply them to their program. 5 hours.

Exploring partnerships

Tuesday 30th April, 10am-1pm

In this module you will explore how partnerships can be leveraged to increase program quality. You will also consider barriers and challenges to partnership in your own context. 3 hours.

Volunteer recruitment and retention

Thursday 23rd May, 10am-1pm

This is one of the most challenging aspects of running an OSHLSP. In this module you will have time to learn from peers regarding recruitment and explore techniques to increase retention of your volunteers. 3 hours.

Engaging with families in your OSHLSP

Tuesday 18th June, 10am-1pm

Many homework clubs would like to communicate more effectively with families of students from refugee and migrant backgrounds. Come to this workshop to share ideas and explore ways to engage and consult. 3 hours.

Listening to young people

Wednesday 31st July, 10am-1pm

It's important to facilitate opportunities for children and young people to participate in the planning, review and evaluation of services. This module will provide lots of practical tips to help you establish participatory practice in your OSHLSP. 3 hours

2019 MY Education Training Calendar

Evaluating your OSHLSP

Wednesday 11th September, 10am-1pm

Evaluating your program helps keep it relevant and improves quality. This module will explore the evaluation process, methods used to establish a baseline and the use of student friendly techniques for gathering data. 3 hours.

Supporting positive behaviour in your OSHLSP

Wednesday 16th October, 10am-1pm

This module looks at ways coordinators can support positive behaviour and manage behaviour issues. You will gain an understanding of reasons for different behaviours, explore strategies and skills to re-engage students in their learning and practice different approaches to encourage positive behaviour. 3 hours.

NOTE Training for coordinators includes time to network over lunch. Please let us know any dietary issues.
