Supporting young people in their settlement journey

This practical training session will show you how to use the National Youth Settlement Framework (NYSF) in your work to support young people to reach their potential as active citizens in Australian society. The NYSF is an evidence-based national guide to good practice for working with young people from refugee and migrant backgrounds – and is the only one of its kind globally. With practical tools, including Self-Assessment Guides and a range of useful resources, the NYSF is designed to equip service providers with the skills and knowledge to best support young people from refugee and migrant backgrounds to thrive in Australia.

Venue: Centre for Multicultural Youth, 304 Drummond Street, Carlton, VIC 3053
